

Baxter Community Center

Mizizi Maji Intern

Brief Description:

At Baxter's Mizizi Maji Mentoring Program we're looking for creative, innovative individuals with a passion for urban youth. Mizizi Maji interns would get the chance to tailor their own unique experiences and gifts to different components of our mentoring program while working under the guidance of our program director, Sharon Lachappelle (MSW). Interns will also have the opportunity to gain experience in Baxter's wide variety of other programs, including our nationally accredited Child Development Center.
